I enjoy working with the both of
you. I have learned alot
while I have been here.
I hope to learn some more in the placement office.

THE SSC FAMILY

Orientation Week picnic draws large crowds.

Amy Graham, Tiger's Roar editor, joins the festivities.

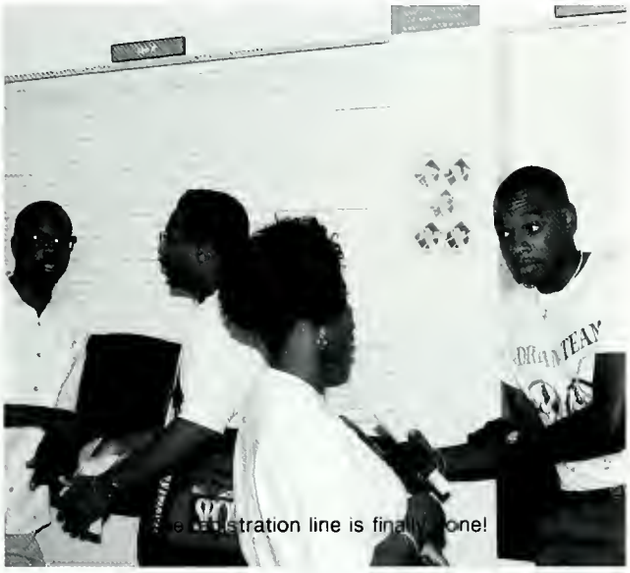
Dean Robinson and granddaughter take a snack break.

Students enjoy a Savannah seafood delicacy, boiled crabs.

Taking notes on Orientation activities.

Obviously most people still remembered how to "pick" a crab.

Peer Counselor Tina Coles assists a parent during Orientation.



The registration line is finally done!

Faculty and Staff get into the picture.

A DAY IN THE . . . LIFE

Chad Alexander tries his hand at horseshoes.

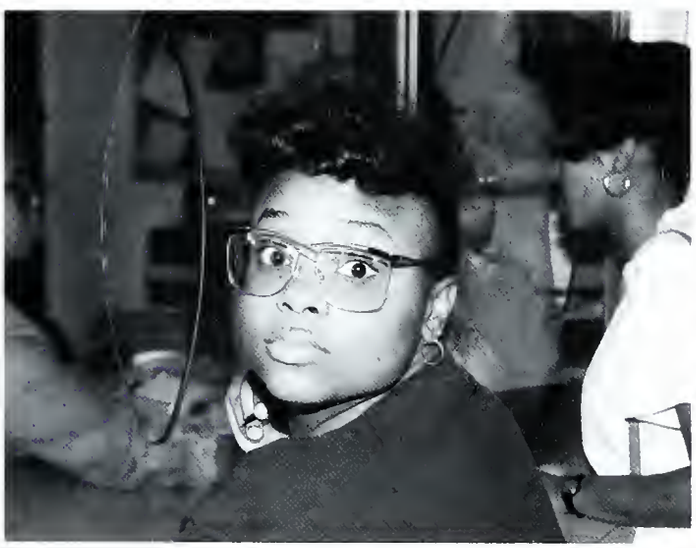
Searching for a class.

Dawn Williams completes registration.

What can I take that's not already closed?

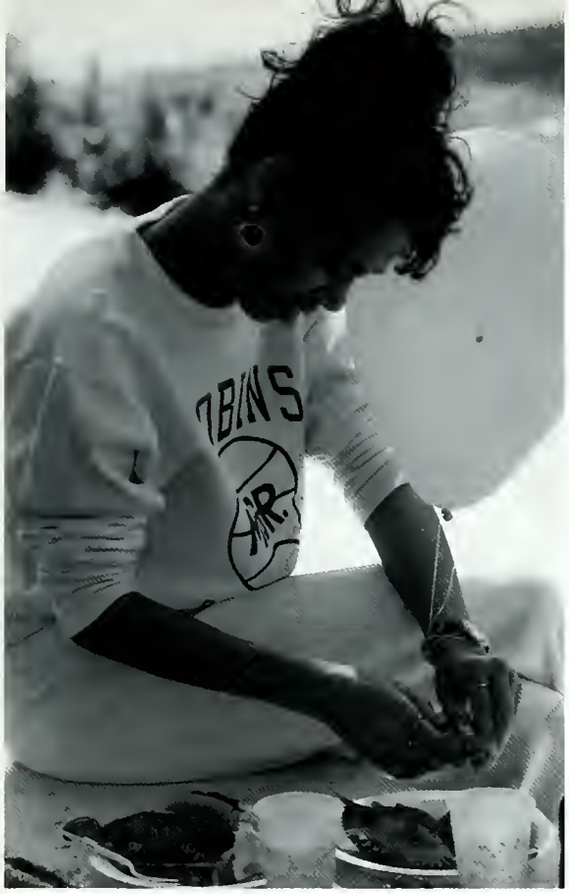
Mr. Hubbard prepares the burgers.

A crabby "getdown".



I thought registration was easy.

Mr. Thomas and his Peer Counselors take a break.



Messy! Messy! Messy!

A P.C.'s work is never done

Orientation week can be fun, if the total college family gets involved. Events were held including a Service of Dedication for all entering freshmen.

Another long day of registration!

HIGHLIGHTS

The Mighty Tigers of SSC took on Miles College in an exciting Homecoming match-up before over 8,000 fans in Tiger stadium. The Homecoming victory, to the tune of 50 - 13, was just what the Tigers needed to cap off an exhilarating season and happy homecoming celebration.

Featured at this year's homecoming was a memorial football seal dedicated to five deceased former loyal Tiger fans who had given unselfishly to Savannah State College for well over two decades. Included among these honorees were: Dr. William E. Gardner, Jr., Mr. Homer Lewis, Professor Norman B. Elmore, Coach Joseph Turner, and Curtburt Burton.

HONOR SOCIETY

STUDENT ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Student Alumni Association operates in conjunction with the Savannah State College National Alumni Association. They lay the groundwork for future involvement as active participating alumni of the College.

CAVALIERS

The Cavaliers is an all-male affiliate club of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc.

ARMY ROTC

The Army ROTC program qualifies the college graduate for a commission in the U.S. Army, United States Army Reserve, or the U.S. Army National Guard. Qualifying for a commission adds an extra dimension to the student's employment capability in that upon graduation from college, the student has military or civilian employment options. Captain Joseph Johnson is Head of the Department.

ASSOCIATION OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERS

The Association of Mechanical Engineers was formed for student mechanical engineering majors. The organization provides an extension of classroom and seminar training. Field experiences, guest lecturers and professionals from the career fields are included in the organization's program activities. Dr. Pravin Raut serves as advisor.

DELTA SIGMA PI

Delta Sigma Pi is a professional fraternity organized to foster the study of business in colleges and universities, to encourage scholarship, social activity and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice. It was founded on November 7, 1907 at New York University. Mrs. Swannie Richards is the faculty advisor.

VISUAL ARTS CLUB

The Visual Art Club is comprised of Art majors who lend their talent and artistic creativity to the college community. Dr. D. Wolff serves as advisor.

NAVAL ROTC

The NROTC unit, established in 1971 at Savannah State College, prepares young Naval Officers for the 21st Century. Upon graduation, young officers are commissioned into the U. S. Navy or Marine Corps. The unit is housed in the NROTC Building and Commander Claven Williams is Chief Officer.

MARINE BIOLOGY

The Purpose of the Marine Biology Club is to provide opportunities for young college students to network as paraprofessionals and participate in field experiences.

On January 6, 1908, a group of young women at Howard University caught the inspiration of a fellow student, Ethel Hedgerman, and initiated the movement of Greek letter sororities among black women in America. She was assisted in her efforts by Lillie Burke, Beulah Burke, Margaret Flagg, Marie Woolfolk, Lavania Norman, Anna Brown, Lucy Slowe, and Majorie Hill.

Gamma Upsilon Chapter, at Savannah State College has as its intent or purpose: to cultivate and encourage scholastic and ethical standards, to promote unity and friendship among college women. Membership, nationwide, has grown to over 75,000 college women.

The first Black Greek letter Organization, founded in America, Alpha Phi Alpha, was conceived during a time when Blacks were being disenfranchised and lynching was widespread, by Henry Collis, Charles Chapman, Eugene Knickle, George Kelly, Robert Ogle, and Vertner Tandy. These men are referred to as the "Jewels" because they banned together because of the social and racial limitations placed on them. December 4, 1906, in New York at Cornell University is the birthplace and date of the world's pioneer Black Greek organization.

Delta Eta Chapter was founded at Savannah State College in 1949 to carry out aims of the fraternity, manly deeds, scholarship and love for all mankind. It was founded by 20 of the college's outstanding young men.

Fourth Row — LaShorn Linen, Danielle Ellison, Stephanie Sampson. Fifth Row — Mary Ivey, Swannie Richards (advisor), Adriunne McIntosh and Trina Scott. (Not Shown — Anquinnette Young).

In 1913 at Howard University, twenty-two strong willed young black women envisioned and founded an organization pledged to serious endeavors, scholarship and public service to mankind. On these principles, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated was founded. Today, it stands strong, with a membership fast approaching 200,000 members as a beacon of hope and light striving to uphold the image of love and public service.

At SSC, the women of Delta Mu Chapter have continued in the footsteps of their illustrious founders by spearheading community service projects which have benefitted the Savannah Community and the college community. The chapter sponsors annual baby showers for unwed mothers, blood drives, clothing and canned food drives, reader registrations and a Delta Against Drunk Driving Day. They continuously seek to add new projects that will uplift their fellow man.

SIGMA GAMMA

Debra Williams, Charmayne Smith, Malinda Womack, Trina Harris, Mabel Sanders, Donna Scott, Pamela Williams, Rozelle Slaymon, Michelle Allen, and Jenee Coxon.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc., was organized on November 12, 1922 in Indianapolis, Indiana by Mary Lou Gardner Little and six outstanding school teachers. The growth of the sorority since its founding has been remarkable. From the small nucleus of seven inspired young women in the capital city of Indiana, it has expanded throughout the United States, District of Columbia and Africa.

Activities of the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority are encouraged that will further in every way possible the advantages of its membership intellectually, morally, and socially.

ITS SO HARD TO SAY GOODBYE TO SSC

HOW DO WE SAY GOODBYE TO SSC
REMEMBERING THE GOOD TIMES THAT MADE US LAUGH
THEY OUTWEIGHED THE BAD
WE'RE SO GLAD THE CHANCE CAME OUR WAY
TO SEE THIS JUNE GRADUATION DAY
ITS SO HARD TO SAY GOODBYE TO SSC
WE DON'T KNOW WHERE THIS ROAD IS GOING TO LEAD
ALL WE KNOW ARE THE PLANS WE MADE WE HOPE TO SUCCEED
WE'RE SO GLAD THE CHANCE CAME OUR WAY
TO SEE THIS JUNE GRADUATION DAY.
ITS SO HARD TO SAY GOODBYE TO SSC
AND WE'LL TAKE WITH US THE MEMORIES
SHARED BETWEEN BOTH YOU AND ME
IT SO HARD TO SAY GOODBYE TO SSC
WE WILL HOLD ON TO THE MEMORIES
ONCE SHARED AT THE COLLEGE BY THE SEA
ITS SO HARD TO SAY GOODBYE TO SSC

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

As I reflect on the past year, I have realized that producing a yearbook requires a lot of time, talent and effort. I also know that a task of this magnitude could not be done alone. Therefore, I would like to personally extend my thanks to the people who have contributed to the successful completion of this yearbook, the 1992 edition of the TIGER. First, I would like to thank God for giving me the strength to take on such an awesome task, the patience to persist until it was completed, and the courage to do it all again next year.

Second, I would like to thank Ms. Juanita Adams for her guidance and patience. The staff in the Office of Development, Mrs. Rose Washington, Mrs. Edna Jackson, Ms. Bonnie Howard and Ms. Naomi Calhoun all provided invaluable typing and layout assistance. My thanks also go to Gary Oliver for assistance in key instances.

A special word of thanks to our campus photographer, Mr. Leonard Jones, who shot almost all of the photographs in this edition.

I encourage more of our students to become involved in the publication of this Yearbook. We need you on our staff and urge you to join us.

To the SSC family, I would like to say that I hope that the 1991-92 Tiger has captured your true essence and that it represents you well.

Sincerely,
Sametria McFall
